

“ A MOST MEMORABLE CHRISTMAS STORY”

My most memorable time on Christmas Day was also joyful. I had a great grandfather that was like my best friend. I can remember some of my childhood past with my great grandfather just like it was yesterday.

One memorable time I had on Christmas was on the day that my great grandfather was able to come over for Christmas. He rarely came over because he was in his 90's. We had fun for the most part but there were some noisy cousins that caused some disturbance. They were not really fun to be around. So after that day my great grandfather went home, and a week later he died. We were heart broken for the next few weeks. My heart is still broken.

So my most memorable time would have to be the day that my great grandfather got to visit us hey wasn't just my great grandfather he was also a very good friend.
