

MOST MEMORABLE CHRISTMAS FOLK TALE

A long long time ago there was an elf who worked for Santa. His name was Buck and he lived in the North Pole in a warm cabin. Some how Buck got trapped.

Buck was getting Santa Clause's sleigh ready when he spotted a bright light. Buck was curious where the light was coming from so he went to look for it. When he found the light he stuck his head in it and saw a beautiful city. It was New York City. He stuck his head in deeper and he fell in the light. Buck was trapped, so Buck went to look around. He found a toy that he made last year and it was broken. Buck was sad and hungry so he set off to find some food. When Buck came back he had all types of fruit. There were berries, apples, oranges, bananas and more. Buck was tired so he made a house out of wood and fell asleep. When he woke up he was in the North Pole in his warm bed.

Buck got lost in New York City and some how found his way back. Was it Santa or was it magic?
