- Received a notice regarding World Kidney Day, on March 11, 2010. A proclamation will be included at the next board meeting.

Trustee Houston reported:

- Bed and Breakfast concerned over the rental inspection fees. After Attorney Yusick reviewed local law with the Code enforcement Officer, the law stands as anyone who collects rent is subject to these fees. The board asked Attorney Yusick to look into a separate law for such types of property, to offer an inspection, but not a per unit charge, some sort of a business status category was suggested as a better avenue to follow. Attorney Yusick will look into this.
- Reported a letter from Mr. Godfrey- approached Mr. Godfrey now in attendance:

Mr. Godfrey reported that he received a Violation letter from Code Enforcement Officer LaBarbera regarding hazards and trash. He fixed the hazard, but is not aware of any trash. As far as painting, he plans on painting it and putting it up for sale. Mayor Frawley stated that the Village Board cannot act on this violation because Mr. Godfrey has to go to court to settle this issue. His request to the board for a hearing was not granted, because according to the Building inspector he is not the owner of the property, his wife was suppose to write the board. His wife stated that he handles all of the business. Mr. Godfrey found the violation letter offensive and asked Mayor Frawley to review the notation on the bottom of the letter. Chief Masullo retrieved the notice and handed it to the Mayor. Mr. Godfrey stated that he always complied with violation notices in the past and doesn't see why there is a threat of an arrest if he doesn't comply. The Mayor said this is a standard letter. Mr. Godfrey will go to court. The board thanked Mr. Godfrey for coming and proceeded with the meeting.

- Stated that the report the Village received from NYCOM confirms a decrease in State Aid (AIM) this will not affect the Village because we received our AIM checks in September which was prior to the cut.
- Asked if the Village Clerk heard from the CDBG representatives yet, to see if the Village received funding for the projects the Village applied for. The Clerk received no conformation yet.
